

CODE OF CONDUCT

FOR STAFF, VOLUNTEERS AND PARENTS OF MELBOURNE MONTESSORI COLLEGE

PURPOSE

Melbourne Montessori College (MMC, the School) is committed to ensuring the highest possible standards of care and behaviour for the educational environment that benefits our entire community.

This Code of Conduct sets out to clarify the actions, behaviours and conduct which are naturally expected of our MMC community being all parents, employees, volunteers, board members and others acting on behalf of MMC in any capacity at all times. This way of behaving is outlined in the Staff Charter and Children's charter but also needs to include families and care-givers, fellow MMC colleagues (staff and volunteers alike), regulatory bodies, and contractors.

SCOPE

The Code of Conduct applies to all Melbourne Montessori College Staff, volunteers, contractors, service providers, Board members, parents, carers and any other adult involved in our School community).

The application of this Code is not limited to the normal place of work and work hours. It extends to all School physical and online environments, during and outside of school hours, such as camps, functions and events that are work-related and when representing or acting on behalf of the School.

This Code does not replace any legislative or regulatory obligations or applicable professional codes of conduct that applies to any workers at Melbourne Montessori College (e.g. Victorian Teaching Profession Codes of Conduct and Ethics).

PRINCIPLES OF THE CODE

Melbourne Montessori College expects all its Staff, volunteers parents and carers to act with integrity, respect and responsibility.

It is expected that those bound by this code will:

- work towards the achievement of the School's vision and mission
- treat others fairly and with dignity and respect
- conduct themselves as an appropriate role model and maintain high standards of personal conduct at all times

Staff must not breach the boundaries of their profession;
- photograph or video a child without a valid educational context
- work with children whilst under the influence of alcohol or illegal drugs
- have personal contact with any student outside of school hours, except when needed to deliver the School curriculum or professional guidance and parental permission has been sought.

Respecting and maintaining confidentiality and privacy

It is expected that all members of the School community will:

- only share private or confidential information held by the School either online or otherwise, with other Staff or members of the School community where it is legitimately required for them to undertake their role
- collect, use, maintain and destroy information, particularly personal or sensitive information, in accordance with the School's Privacy Policy and applicable legislation
- never discuss/disclose any information about Melbourne Montessori College that is not already public knowledge, without the appropriate authority to do so.

Avoiding and managing conflicts of interest

It is expected that all members of the School community will:

- be aware of potential, perceived or actual conflicts of interest and disclose them immediately to the Principal or a member of the School Leadership Team
- never accept a gift, reward or entertainment if it could create an obligation or expectation, or could be perceived to create an obligation or expectation, that would be in conflict with your role at the School
- maintain appropriate relationships when dealing with students, parents and suppliers, particularly recognising the need to maintain professional (not personal) relationships with students.

Complying with the requirements of the law

It is expected that all members of the School community will comply with all relevant laws, regulations, policies and procedures. Any actual or suspected breaches of this Code, any law, regulation, policy, or procedure should be honestly reported.
